DETAILED ACTIONElection/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-14 and 31-32 are drawn to an information service providing method and terminal for receiving a request through a first commutation line, classified in class 705, subclass 26.
- II. Claim 15-22 and 33, drawn to a personal certification method and apparatus which includes a password generating part and a password authentication, classified in class 705, subclass 50.
- III. Claim 23-30, drawn to an electronic commerce method and system which includes a product information server and an electronic settlement center, classified in class 705, subclass 26.

Inventions I, II, and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as a an information service providing method and terminal for receiving a request through a first commutation line, invention II has separate utility such as a personal certification method and apparatus which includes a password generating part and a password authentication, and invention III has separate utility such as an electronic commerce method and system which includes a product information server and an electronic settlement center. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Art Unit: 3627

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter and different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
